

55 Maitland Street Geelong West VIC

4 1 1

The cottage garden leads to the front door with bull nose verandah, timber decking and lead light windows.

The property offers a four bedroom layout all with built in robes, near new carpet and recently painted throughout.

The generous open plan kitchen and dining area has gas heating. The kitchen presenting a crisp white color scheme with gas cooking has ample storage with double pantry and island bench ideal for entertaining. A near new bathroom follows the white color theme with separate toilet. The separate living area has air conditioning with private aspect overlooking the rear garden.

The garage has a rear access from Wellington Street with extra storage capacity. Walk to Pakington street, the Geelong station and the Waterfront with ease.
